

GARY LEN DAILEY

April 18, 1955 – March 28, 2011

Gary Len Dailey, 55 of Dripping Springs, lost his courageous battle with Pancreatic Cancer on March 28, 2011.

Gary was born in Austin on April 18, 1955, to Will E. (Red) and Bobbie Jean Dailey. Gary was a graduate of Reagan High School in 1973.

Known for his hard work and dedication; he worked at Gary Pools for 17 years and then retired as a carpenter from Austin Independent School District in 2009. He was an avid outdoorsman, a lover of the Texas hill country who enjoyed hunting and fishing. In 1985, Gary married the love of his life, Kelli Wilkes; together they had two daughters, Kate and Natalie. They made their home in Dripping Springs, Texas in 1997.

Gary is survived by his wife of 26 years Kelli Wilkes Dailey, daughters Kate Dailey of San Angelo and Natalie Dailey of Austin, his parents Red and Bobbie Jean Dailey of Kyle, sister Janice Motal and husband Pat of Fayetteville, and a large extended family.

The family requests that donations in Gary's memory be made to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network, www.pancan.org.
